Associate Product Manager (Growth/Marketing)

Product Research & Planning | Cross-functional Collaboration | Marketing Strategy

I'm an MBA graduate from the University of Tehran with hands-on experience in project coordination and close collaboration with marketing and content teams at a children's storytelling app. I have contributed to planning and tracking execution, cross-functional coordination, and developing product ideas. I'm interested in a Product Assistant / Associate Product Manager role, with a focus on product growth and marketing strategy.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Ghesegoo.app — Tehran, Iran

Jan 2025 – Present

Marketing & Project Coordinator

I assisted with product planning and day-to-day execution for a children's storytelling app, working closely with marketing and content teams. I helped organize priorities, track progress, and support launches.

- Supported growth initiatives and coordinated cross-team execution, helping increase the user base from 150 to 5,000.
- Planned and executed collaboration campaigns with multiple businesses, expanding reach through partner channels.
- Coordinated participation in children-focused festivals/events to increase brand awareness and attract new users.
- Worked with content and marketing teams to align messaging and deliverables for launches and campaigns.
- Assisted with organizing priorities and tracking tasks to ensure on-time delivery across teams
